ISASC: Sale of Collection

1 message

[REDACTED] Mon, Apr 5, 2010 at 5:12 PM

To all ISASC members:

We have been notified by the family of a former member that they wish to sell the collection consisting of around 200 scales of worthwhile quality and many weights. The scales are of all different types. They are located in Portland, OR. The seller is able to email pictures for those interested.

For more information contact Kim Joy by email [REDACTED] or by telephone at 503-282-8201.

Please Note: ISASC has no information concerning the seller other than what is in this email. Any business transactions would be strictly between the seller and the buyer. ISASC has no interest or connection, financial or otherwise, with the seller. We serve only as a conduit of information to our members.

Regards,

Carol

ISASC: Convention Time is Near

1 message

[REDACTED] Wed, Apr 8, 2015 at 3:30 PM

Hi All,

The Omaha Convention is quickly approaching! We have plenty of scales to see, people to meet and things to learn about in the Omaha area. Check your calendars one more time, and if the 14th to the 17th of May already has an entry for something else, take time to reschedule, and then make new plans to join us in Omaha.

We have terrific events scheduled at the Henry Doorly Aquarium, at the Schneiderman Museum (with more than just scales), at a top-notch local restaurant and at the Marriott Hotel for a great banquet. Our programs on Saturday and Sunday will include several informative and scale-oriented presentations in the mornings, and of course, the ever-favorite Silent Auction in the afternoon on Saturday.

Most importantly, is the opportunity to meet with old friends, and make new friends, who are interested in the wonderful world of collecting scales. I am always amazed at what I learn each time I attend.

Be sure to book your hotel rooms by the April 22nd to get the special discounted ISASC rate.

We are looking for your registration form for the convention on the same date. However, if you have to wait longer, "to change other commitments on your calendar" in order to attend, we can, and will, accommodate late registrations up to the week of the convention. We really want everyone possible to take advantage of coming to Omaha.

OH, by the way, did I mention that Omaha is right in the middle of the country, so it should be convenient for travel for most, not having to go from coast to coast.

Hope to see you there!

Your Convention Hosts,

*Greg and Judy Hill
Les and Jan Schneiderman*

ISASC: Auction Notification

1 message

[REDACTED] Mon, Feb 2, 2015 at 1:23 PM

We recently received the email below from Pam Knowles whose father was a member of ISASC-Euro. We are forwarding it for those who might be interested.

I just wanted to let the members of ISASC know about my late father's collection. Geoffrey Newell was an avid and knowledgeable collector of weights and measures and a former member of your society. Sadly he died about 13 years ago and after the death of my mother, 2 years ago, I have decided to put some of his collection into auction.

About 45 lots have been consigned to the Tennants [<http://www.tennants.co.uk/>] auction rooms in Leyburn, North Yorkshire, and the sale will be held on Friday 13th February.

Dad knew many people in ISASC, but spoke frequently to Diana Crawforth-Hitchins, Albert Rangely, and John Lound.

Should anyone remember him I'm sure they will know that he collected rare and interesting examples of weights and measures, and that the Tennants catalogue (when produced in the next couple of weeks), will indicate this.

Kind regards,

Pam Knowles

ISASC: Auction Deadline

1 message

[REDACTED] Fri, Jan 2, 2015 at 3:23 PM

Happy New Year to All!

AUCTION DEADLINE – JANUARY 5TH, 2015

Wanted to remind everyone of the deadline for bidding in our auction that was publicized in the November newsletter.

U.S. Coin Scales and Counterfeit Coin Detectors
Eric P. Newman & A. George Mallis, Copyrighted 1999

For those who are unfamiliar with this book, it is a spiral bound soft cover (8½ x 11) with, as the authors say, “complete U.S. Patent Office drawings covering Coin Scales and Mechanical Counterfeit Coin Detectors...including data and drawings of unpatented Mechanical Coin Detectors...detailed drawings and descriptions of variations of patented and unpatented devices as manufactured.” This is a great opportunity to acquire this highly sought after, hard to find book authored by two of the most prominent experts in this field.

The minimum bid is $75.00. The buyer pays shipping cost. Payment by personal check or PayPal is expected within 10 days of notification of winning bid. Once payment is received item will ship. Submit your written bid by contacting Mary Anne via email at [REDACTED] or by mail at the address listed in the Membership Directory. No verbal/telephone bids will be accepted. The auction will close on January 5, 2015. All bids must be received by this date. If you have any questions, you may contact Mary Anne by phone at 412-321-5947.

ISASC: Survey

1 message

 Sun, Jan 4, 2015 at 12:06 PM

For those who have not yet sent in their survey that was included in the November mailing, please take some time now to fill out and return it in the envelope provided. It is a short two-page survey that shouldn't require much of your time, but we are very interested in your feedback. We will be tallying the results in the next couple weeks, and would like to include as many responses as possible.

If you have misplaced your survey and/or envelope, please email me, and I will provide you the information that you need to complete and return your survey.

Thank you, Carol

We have been contacted by member Ralph Lipfert. Ralph's parents, Ralph and Gloria, were long time collectors and members of ISASC. Ralph inherited their collection and joined ISASC as he also had an interest in scales. However, he has now decided to sell his collection. He says the collection is fairly broad including an emphasis on coin weighing scales, postal scales and weight sets of various descriptions. Ralph can send pictures of groups of items and detailed pictures of individual items upon request.

For those interested Ralph can be contacted at [REDACTED] or by phone at 757-220-0418.

ISASC: Member Seeking Items

1 message

 Sat, Jan 15, 2011 at 5:32 PM

Member Howard Cheifitz has contacted us concerning some scale related items he is searching for. He is looking for some weights and the cast iron yoke to complete a Howard & Davis set of standards. More information about the Howard & Davis can be found in EQM, 1999, Issue 3. Included in the article is a full page picture of the one at Old Sturbridge Village.

He is looking for the following:

- 1) Set of 16 nickel-plated cylindrical weights: 1 and 2 drachms, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$, 1, 2, 4 & 8 oz and 1, 2, 4, 5, 10, 20, 25 & 50 lbs. The largest 5 are with ring handles and the rest are with screw top handles. All have flat bottoms and are marked CM for Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
- 2) A cast iron yoke with gimbals that can be mounted in slot in left end of cupboard and dry measures set into yoke for accurate leveling.

He is interested in buying or trading for these items. Howard can be contacted at 914-523-6598 or

Eric,

My name is Michael S. Foster, I am a new member of the ISASC and specialize in Sovereign and coin rockers and balances. I am writing a new Book/Reference Manual on 'Sovereigns Balances 2 – Standard and Non-standard Rockers and Crowns' with Diana Crawforth-Hitchins as my editor. I have two articles on sovereign rockers published in the 2009 Equilibrium Issues 3&4 and others accepted by Jan Berning for the 2010 Equilibrium.

I am writing to make contact as Diana believes you may have or know who has a sovereign rocker by "Hulston & Lucas" that was reported to Michael Crawforth to be in the George Mallis collection. Diana has indicated that George died several years ago, and that she has no records of what happened to his collection, but felt the it might have been left to you or that you might know of its whereabouts?

I am trying to get photos of the unique rockers listed by Michael to include my reference book. I have over 160 sovereign and coin rockers in my personal collection, including a number of unique 'Named' rockers and I am in the process of completing Collection Catalogues on Michael and Diana Crawforth's and Noel and Janet Scarratt's sovereign rocker collections for posterity. I also have photos in my database from the collections of Norman Biggs, Graham Weeks, and Wolfgang Schilde.

I would be please to know more about your coin scales and learn what happened to some of George's collection, if you can help?

Any assistance would be appreciated and acknowledged in the Book.

Thanks in advance,

Michael S. Foster

Dear Mr. Foster:

I am always glad to try to assist a fellow researcher and writer. I was privileged to know Michael and my wife and I visited him and Diana in England long ago. He fixed overnight after I went to sleep some of the damaged English coin scales I had bought in London and brought with me

I am a numismatist and run a money museum in St. Louis. Included in the collection are a large group of American coin counterfeit detector mechanisms and coins scales. I wrote a book with A. George Mallis on the subject. I have a paucity of English rockers but have a large collection of English coin pub tills.

Mallis was a good friend of mine but was somewhat secretive. When he and his wife became sick he had to spend a lot of money and ran out of it. He lived in Springfield, Massachusetts. She died a few days before he did. He provided in his will that I could buy American items in his collection at prices he had set. I was told it was not clear about some of the prices. He owed me a substantial amount of money for half the cost of printing our book. I never received anything. His collection was then sold at auction in Boston by a firm specializing in technical items. My guess is about 1990 - 91, I was outbid on the American items I wanted. There were a group of English pieces in the printed catalog. Jerome Katz, a vice president of ISCS, was there I think and he could be helpful.

Good luck in your work and I hope I have been a trifle helpful.

Dear Eric,

Thank you for the quick response and the information. I will do some more investigating. I am already in touch with Jerome Katz and have sent him a detailed list of the sovereign rockers that I am searching for. I have included the list below and copied Jerome on this email to perhaps stir his memory. The HULSTON & LUCAS is the rocker that Diana believes George Mallis once owned. Your information may help if Jerome has a copy of the auction catalog or can provide additional information?

I too am a numismatist but the coins that I collect have gotten too dear for my pocket book these days. My collections include Roman Imperial Silver Denarii and Antoninianii (~150), but my passion was Gallo-Belgic and British Celtic gold and silver (~70-80) which I started collecting after I bought Robert Van Arsdell's book "Celtic Coinage of Britain" at Spink in London, when they first released it around 1990. I am fortunate enough to have a Celtic Coin Index Private Collection letter 'M' which is the result of submitting my coins in the early days of the project.

Sovereign Balance List

" I am specifically searching for sovereign balances with the following names from Michael Crawford's Booklet on Sovereign Balances. I have been unable to find examples of the following to obtain photographs, even with Diana Crawford (now Hitchins) assistance on who originally reported or owned the rockers. My comments are in bold and italic below.

MARK ON BALANCE

BASTICK, LONDON – Richard Bastick, scale-maker, 2 Holywell Row, Worship St, London, 1840-50 - no record of owner.

B.C. – possibly Bennett Cattle - no record of owner or even that a 'B.C.' labelled rocker ever existed.

DOLLO – Unknown - no record of owner.

GAIMES (name on box) – Gaimes, 53 St. Paul's Churchyard, London – probably just a retailer of Thomas Simmons made rockers - no record of owner.

HULSTON & LUCAS – Unknown – ex George Mallis Collection – don't know what happened to it after George died.

NEILL – Robert Neill, Jeweller, silversmith, optician, nautical instrument-maker, globe and chart seller, Belfast, Ireland. - ex Gerry Chellingworth collection – no record of buyer.

PICKETT – John Pickett, Clock maker and whitesmith, High St, Marlborough, 1780-1847 – ex Japp Visser - sold to an Unrecorded American collector.

HENRY PIDDUCK & SONS – Unknown, - no record of owner.

J. STONE, 18 WARWICK ST., LONDON – Unknown - no record of owner.

WHEELAM – Unknown in Sheppard & Musham's book - no record of owner.

WYTON – George Wyton, Brass founder, 12 Court, Legge St, Birmingham, 1842-50 – no record of owner."

Thanks again,

Mike Foster

Dear Mike:

I have no further answer to your further inquiries other that I remember that the Mallis auction was in a little town very near Boston. One of the reasons I was unable to buy the American pieces I needed from the Mallis estate is that the executors wanted me to buy everything and not select. Mallis would have been very disappointed to have had this take place. The proceeds of his estate went to a not for profit organization. I do not know where you are from and will have to search the club's records to find out. Tell me by Email.

ISASC: Museum Survey

1 message

[REDACTED] Wed, Jun 24, 2015 at 8:23 AM

We are asking for your help!

We are starting to explore the possibility of going from our private museum to a public museum. The first step is research and we need your help. The Museum Finance Committee developed a brief questionnaire about museums you have recently visited, or will be visiting in the coming few months. This questionnaire is attached. You can fill out as many copies as you need for visits to different museums. If you prefer we have included a copy of the questionnaire in the EQM mailing that is now being sent out. You can make more copies to fill out one for each museum you visit.

The questionnaire asks several factual questions, but an important addition is telling us why – why you liked it or didn't like it, why it was okay or exceptional? With this in mind we ask that you take a few extra minutes on the back of the form to give your overall impressions and state if you would recommend this particular museum to others.

We are asking each of you to visit as many museums as possible in the next few months, and return the written questionnaires at the address listed below. Deadline: September 30, 2015

You can email, US mail or call me with questions: [REDACTED] / 2194 Ostrum Dr, Waterford, MI 48328 / Phone (248) 338-4496.

This will only be successful if we have enough questionnaires returned to us to be able to gather meaningful data, so your help in this project is invaluable.

ISASC: Member Downsizing Collection

1 message

[REDACTED] Tue, Mar 3, 2015 at 3:57 PM

Larry Press has asked us to let everyone know that he is “downsizing” his collection.

Many of you know Larry from past conventions, and if you were lucky enough saw his extensive collection on the Monday trip at the 2012 Pittsburgh Convention. Larry has been a member for over twenty years and all the while has been collecting “big-time”. The result is a massive collection of scales and weights of all types and excellent quality.

Larry says the best way to handle this downsizing is for people who remember what he has or are looking for a certain scale to contact him. He can be reached at 904-765-2364 or by email at [REDACTED]

ISASC: Convention Update

1 message

Wed, Mar 24, 2010 at 5:38 PMNEWS FLASH!

Stay tuned for the latest update from the Convention Committee who has been hard at work putting on the finishing touches so we can all have a great time in Portland this May.

Program Chairman Bill James is very excited to announce the Saturday morning line up of speakers. First on board is Historian Harmony Geiner who will be speaking on the Lewis and Clark Expedition and its impact on the Pacific Northwest. Next, we are very fortunate to have European member, Jaap Visser, share with us his extensive knowledge of Counterfeit Coin Detector Rockers. He will cover rockers of both Continental and American manufacture. James Reeve, our technology expert, will give us step by step instructions on how to sell items over the internet.

The grand finale will be an extra treat. One of our founding members, Ruth Willard, will present a program on one of her specialties, African Miniatures and Gold Weights of the Ashanti and Akan.

The interesting and varied program is only the beginning. Add to that, the tours, the album sharing get-together, the Silent Auction and the gala banquet and you have numerous reasons to attend the annual convention in Portland. This is the first time our convention has been held in Portland and it is a delightful city to explore.

We ask everyone to get their registration in by April 10. If you have misplaced your registration form, don't despair! Simply reply back to this email and I will be glad to send it to you. Another option, go to www.isasc.org under Annual Convention and read about the great time that has been planned for you while you download the registration form and program.

For you a Rose in Portland Grows in 2010!

ISASC: Goodhue Collection

1 message

 Fri, May 1, 2015 at 3:22 PM

We received the following note from Bill and Jan Berning.

Ken Goodhue was a long-time ISASC member attending and speaking at many conventions. He had a collection of hundreds of scales when he passed away last year. His family would like us to give ISASC members the first chance to buy them. Your first opportunity to own part of the Goodhue collection will be at the ISASC Omaha Convention Silent Auction. If there are any scales on the attached list that you would be interested in, let us know and we will bring them to the convention.

ISASC: Wehman Scale Collection

1 message

Fri, May 9, 2014 at 3:52 PM

Melissa Wehman, Phil's daughter, sent us the following information for those who are interested.

Wehman Scale Collection

As you may have heard, our father, Phil Wehman, died in December. Many of you have asked what will happen to the extensive scales collection that was started by our mother, George Anna Wehman, and continued after her death by Phil. After long discussions, we have decided to sell the majority of the collection.

The collection contains over 1,100 scales. If you attended the convention in Chattanooga, you know that he had some wonderful scales. Before his death, Phil donated several to the Discovery Park Museum in Union City, Tennessee, and we have chosen to keep a very few of our favorite scales. Other than those, all others will be for sale. We will also sell scale signs, advertising, postcards, and reference books. We have not decided what to do with the toy scales.

In May, we will begin selling the small scales on E-Bay. The seller name is PHILSCALES. Check the site often and look for us.

On Sunday, August 31, 2014, the larger scales and remaining smaller scales will be auctioned in Chattanooga by Les Meek at Meek's Antique Auctions. Les is originally from Wales. He returns frequently to Europe where he handpicks furniture and other items to sell. Phil bought many scales from Les and we are thrilled that he is willing to handle this auction. We estimate that there will be over 300 scales for sale that afternoon. Les gladly accepts absentee bidders, phone bidders, and can arrange to ship scales if you cannot be here in person. We will send more information later about the auction house and scales available at the auction.

This is a once in a lifetime sale and we hope to see you here in Chattanooga on August 31!

Melissa and Philip Wehman

ISASC: Notification of eBay Sale

1 message

[REDACTED] Fri, Nov 13, 2015 at 12:12 PM

Make Scarlett who has handled several scale auctions on eBay for ISASC members has notified us of another one currently in progress.

Lucio Marson was a former member of ISASC. A small consignment from his collection is being auctioned right now on eBay—ending on Monday, Nov 16th.

The following link will take you to eBay, User ID 'paperjet' ...and STORE category 'Scale Related'.

ISASC: Collection for Sale

1 message

[REDACTED] Sat, Oct 2, 2010 at 2:37 PM

We would like to announce that more scales and scale related items will be auctioned on eBay in the coming months. These items are from the collection of ISASC founding member Bill Doniger. As most members know, Bill has assembled one of the premier collections in the world.

Here is a message from the consignees:

The eBay site will be "jmscarlett". This site is monitored by Julie and Mike Scarlett. We are excited to be a part of this and hope you will check the listings often. Very few common items will be offered, and if so, most will have out-of-the-ordinary aspects. Some rare coinweights will be sure to impress. The first group of auctions will be listed October 4, 2010. This initial lot will close on Monday, October 11th. For now, all auctions will close on a Monday. They will be in closely timed groups with various scales and weights leading the way. These items will be followed by the coinweights and finally books and related paper items.

We always do our best to combine items for savings on shipping. Although PayPal has become the standard, personal checks and money orders will be gladly accepted. Direct email to 'jmscarlett' is: [REDACTED]

Regards, Carol

ISASC: Reprinted EQM and Auction Update

1 message

Tue, Sep 6, 2011 at 12:01 PMReprinted EQM

Those of you that have already received your copy of Issue 3, 2011 EQM may have noticed that the pages are not in correct numerical order. This was the printer's mistake and was discovered after the mailing was sent out. Please be advised that the issue is being reprinted at no cost to the society. In addition, the printer is reimbursing ISASC the additional cost of postage for the second mailing. As soon as the reprinted issue is received, we will be sending everyone a corrected copy. Thank you in advance for your patience.
